WACO family and Friends

WOW this summer is going fast. Not enough time in the day.

I just wanted to send out a note and mention a couple of things.

It is probably a little late for this but since everyone has to eat. If you go to On the Border Mexican Restaurant (North Rock Road across from Best Buy) any time on Thursday and mention that you are there to help support "Hands of Hope Rescue", this is an animal rescue organization <https://www.handsofhoperescue.com/>, then 20% of what you spend will be donated to that charity. Sorry for the late notice, but I just found out myself. My family is going to meet there at 6:00.

I don't have anything on it but I have been told that Automobilia or whatever it's real name is, Moonlight Car Show, is going on this weekend. I hope that you have all done a better job of planning ahead than I have for this event. It should be a good event as usual.

It looks like there is a lot going on next weekend also. The ACE car show (see below) is a real good show and then there is dragging Douglas in the evening. That is always real fun. Maybe I will see you down there.

We are planning a WACO cruise on Saturday August 24th. We do not have all of the plans finalized yet but we do know that we will end up in Clearwater at Ron Fleming's house. We will have free food for all of our members at lunch time.

I believe that what we are going to try and do is, meet somewhere in Wichita or the surrounding area Saturday morning and then cruise through the countryside and end up in Clearwater.

I will share the details as soon as we have them finalized.

If you want to know where and what show to attend over the weekend then you should contact David Hime and or go to our web site. He attends a show or two almost every weekend. Get hold of him and you can meet him there.

It might be worth the drive, he already has 25% of the booths sold. It is an indoor swap meet. One of our members, Ron Kite has purchased 4 spots and has said that if any of our members have items to sell, they are welcome to put them in with his stuff.

The Chill 2020 - Richard and Robin Bartel gave us updates on “The Chill”. They are making great progress in getting everything set up for next year. They would like to line up a bunch of WACO volunteers to help at the show. They always make a nice donation to WACO in the end and in return they get good help. Please think about volunteering. There are plenty of areas to volunteer for. Please see the 04/23/19 WACO update for areas to volunteer for.
